4. The 50th Infantry Battalion, Army Unit No. 2255, is garrisoned as follows:
 - a. Battalion Headquarters is in Marianske Lazne (N50/P56) at the Hamerniky Barracks. Stationed here also are one headquarters company, one machine gun company and the 1st Infantry Company. The C.O. of the 50th Infantry Battalion is Colonel Adam Travnicky, 50 years old, married, a Communist and a sadist. The barracks is overcrowded, being occupied by about 2,500 troops.
 - b. At the Hotel "Madrazi" in Dolni Zandov (N51/P36) are stationed the 2nd and 3rd Infantry Companies. The C.O. of both companies is Capt. Solen, a Communist, 28 years old and single. 5. Training exercises were held by four reconnaissance companies at the Prameny garrison and in the vicinity of the village of Studanky. Training was conducted by Staff Capt. The objective of the training was siege of enemy lines at night, penetration of the rear of the enemy and seizure of prisoners and materiel.
6. At the Zandov garrison labor companies were digging anti-tank ditches and trenches. Trenches were dug at a distance of about 1 to 1 1/2 km from the border (see annex). One-half the men were digging, the other half were exercising. The trenches were dug in the free area of the border zone. They were 4 meters wide and 4 meters deep, and were camouflaged from the German side. North of Oldrichov, trenches were dug by units from Cheb; south of Marianske Lazne were units from the Hamerniky Barracks.
7. Two or three times a week training alerts were held. Non-Communist soldiers were forced to remain in their quarters. During the alerts troops were transported to the border in trucks and armed with automatic weapons. Communists who were especially reliable were also armed with sub-machine guns while digging. One-half of the troops are Communist. It is rumored that by 1 October only reliable Communists will remain in the battalion. These will be well paid and enjoy special privileges.
